Morris H. Wolf, an award-winning real estate developer, died Friday at Gilchrist Center for Hospice Care from complications from acute leukemia. He was 71.

In 1997, Mr. Wolf, principal of Morris H. Wolf Enterprises of Towson, was named Land Developer of the Year by the Home Builders Association of Maryland. His projects include The Club at Patriot's Glen, Vineyard Oak, Country Walk, Woodbridge Center, Harford Town and Laurel Valley in Harford County, and Parkview Trail, Chapelgate and Owings Overlook in Baltimore County. Mr. Wolf was born in Baltimore and graduated from Forest Park High School in 1951. He attended Duke University from 1951 to 1952 and received a law degree from the University of Baltimore Law School in 1955. He passed the Maryland Bar exam when he was 21, said daughter Pamela Wolf of Brookline, Mass.

Family members said that in recent years Morris divided his time among Baltimore, Ocean City, and North Key Largo, Fla., to pursue his passion for fishing while continuing to work.

Services will be held at 4 p.m. today at Sol Levinson & Bros., 8900 Reisterstown Road in Pikesville.

Mr. Wolf is survived by his wife, the former Barbara Lanza of Baltimore; four other daughters, Deborah Wolf of Middlesex, Vt., Cynthia Wolf of Rushford, Minn., Kimberly Wolf Kupfer of Camp Hill, Pa., and Elizabeth Wolf of Redding, Conn.; and 14 grandchildren.
